GENERAL

PROCEEDINGS

Dated 30th August 1898,

Mis. 2810-43
Mis. F. 21-96

Sanctioning certain Special allowances
for Medical officers employed on Plague duty.

READ—

Letter No. 662—303, dated 25th March 1898, from the Plague Commissioner in Mysore, submitting for the approval of Government, a statement showing the allowances recommended by the Senior Surgeon for Medical officers and subordinates employed on Special Plague duty.

Letter No. 231, dated 19th April 1898, from the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner with the Government of Mysore, furnishing certain additional information on the subject.

Letter No. 8026, dated 15th April 1898, from the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, stating that the Medical officers and subordinates employed at certain stations on Plague duty, having been posted to those stations by Government Notification, such stations become their Head-quarters for the time being, and travelling allowances cannot be drawn for stay there, and suggesting that under these circumstances, the officials in question may be given deputation allowances not exceeding the travelling allowances to which they may be entitled.

Letter No. 317, dated 24th May 1898, from the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner with the Government of Mysore, stating that he has no objection to the allowances in question being treated as deputation allowances.

Letter No. 256, dated 28th May 1898, from the President, Bangalore City Municipality, stating that Mr. Ponnusamy Pillay, Honorary Sub-Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Plague Segregation Camp, Bangalore, is being given batta at 12 annas per diem out of the allotment sanctioned for Plague Prevention Measures, and requesting sanction to the payment of Rs. 133-8-0 already made up to the end of May 1898, and to the continuance of the allowance during the period of that officer's employment on the said duty.

No. 2840-43—Mis. F. 21-96, DATED BANGALORE, 30TH AUGUST 1898.

ORDER THEREON.—The following special allowances are sanctioned for Medical officers employed on Plague duty:—

				Rs.
Assistant Surgeon	...	...	...	60 per mensem.
Sub-Assistant Surgeon	...	...	...	30 do
First Class Hospital Assistant	...	...	...	20 do✓
2nd and 3rd Class Hospital Assistants	...	...	...	15 do
Lady Apothecary	...	...	...	45 do
Midwife	...	...	...	10 do

[Note.—The Medical officer on Plague duty at Bowringpet will also get a local allowance of Rs. 5 per mensem.]

2. The allowances will have retrospective effect from the date on which the special duty commenced in each case and will be in supersession of daily allowances under the Mysore Service Regulations during the period of such employment, the stations to which the officials in question are posted being considered their Head-quarters for the time being.

3. The amount of batta paid to Mr. Ponnusamy Pillay, Honorary Sub-Assistant Surgeon, will be adjusted from the allowance now sanctioned for that officer.

No 480 P

Dated 8th March 1902

Sir

In forwarding the marginally noted documents from the Assistant Surgeon Hassan, as regards the higher rate of plague allowance claimed by Hospital Assistant H. Krishnajeetty, for the period he was on plague duty in the places referred to by him, I have the honor to state that he and other Hospital Assistants who were on similar duty were paid a monthly plague allowance of Rs.10/- as per Government Proceedings No.P.G. 710-13 dated 12th December 1900, but as these are entitled to the higher rate of allowance as per Government Proceedings No.2840-43/Mis.F.21-96 dated 30th August 1898, in which general sanction was accorded to the Hospital Assistants on plague duty as per scale below viz.

1st Class.....Rs.20/-

2nd & 3rd Class.....Rs.15/-

and as the same scale was sanctioned to the individuals recommended by me, in Government Proceedings Nos.9688-89/L.B.(P) 1242 dated 19-12-01 and 13485-86/L.B.(P) 1473 dated 14-2-02, I have the honor to recommend that sanction may be accorded for the payment of the allowance as per scale sanctioned in Government Proceedings No.2840-43/Mis.F.21-96 dated 30th August 1898 to such of the Hospital Assistants who were on general plague duty in the various parts of the Province up to 1st February 1902 when, the allowance was stopped.

I beg to state that a Special allowance of Rs 10/- has been granted to me for discharging plague duty in the village of Surat & Arichur Taluqa
in the town of DBassar. The hardships of government servants on plague duty
the dearth of provisions during the plague time need not be related here being too well known. The hardships of the kind entail additional comforts being provided for to avoid loss of health & to keep men & arrows for work. I beg to bring to your notice that an allowance of Rs 15/- is sanctioned to 2nd & 3rd Class Hospital Assistants
on Plague duty in Govt. orders 2840-43
Dris 7/21-96 dated 30th August 1898
where all allowances are given even to men at establishments here.
In view of the circumstances represented
above and in consideration of the fact

I beg that you will kindly recommend to the Senior Surgeon & Sanitary Commissioned Mysore Government & to the Deputy Commissioned Hassan District that I may be granted the concession of an allowance of Rs 15/- sanctioned in the order of Government quoted above. - - -
